AGENCY MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Office of the Secretary of State is to carry out its constitutional and statutory mandates, which are to receive and record filings from governmental bodies and the general public; to provide election services to counties and candidates for office; to register and certify business transactions; to publish official acts of the State of Arizona including its chapter laws and rules; to appoint notaries public; and to carry out these mandates in a manner compatible with the requirements and expectations of the constituencies the office serves.

AGENCY DESCRIPTION

The Department of State was created by the constitution and is headed by a publicly elected Secretary of State, who serves as Acting Governor in the absence of the Governor, and succeeds the Governor should a vacancy occur. The Secretary of State is the official keeper of the Great Seal of the State of Arizona.

The Secretary of State's office receives and records various filings, including Uniform Commercial Code transactions, trademark and trade name registrations, charity filings, limited partnership and limited liability partnership filings; administers election functions, including canvass and certification of state-wide elections, registration of lobbyists and acceptance of periodic lobbyist filings, and campaign finance filings; publishes all official acts of the State of Arizona including Chapter laws, the Arizona Administrative Code and the Arizona Administrative Register, appoints notaries public, and authenticates notaries public and certain public officials for documents sent to foreign locations.

ADMINISTRATION

MISSION STATEMENT:

To provide guidance, leadership, and support to the staff of the Secretary of State's office.

DIVISION DESCRIPTION:

The administration anticipates the increasing expectations of the public, candidates, elected officials, media, and business community in order to provide timely and efficient filing and retrieval of information through advanced automation.

The Secretary of State's office is responsible for maintaining a record of all official acts of the Governor during the year, and to account for the official acts of the Secretary of State including issuance and attachment of the Great Seal of Arizona to documents that are filed. The Secretary of State's Office keeps documentation of filings and registrations made within its divisions, as well. Counts of these transactions are tabulated throughout this report where available.

The Administration Division of the Secretary of State's Office recorded, filed or prepared:

- ◆ 382 Extraditions
- ◆ 56 Eagle Scout certificates
- ◆ 0 Gold Award Girl Scout certificates
- ◆ 0 Community service certificates
- ◆ 19 Grants of permission to use the State Seal

The Administration Division of the Secretary of State's Office has kept record of the following actions of the Governor:

- ◆ 253 Bills signed into law during the 2nd Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature
- ◆ 6 Bills signed into law during the 1st special sessions of the 43rd Legislature
- ◆ 3 Bills signed into law during the 2nd special sessions of the 43rd Legislature
- ◆ 8 Resolutions filed
- ◆ 16 Memorials filed
- ◆ 17 Executive Orders

BUSINESS SERVICES

MISSION STATEMENT:

To accept, deny, process, and maintain a database and record of all required documents and to make them available to all interested parties.

DIVISION DESCRIPTION:

The Business Services Division exists to centralize state-wide registration of trade names, trademarks, limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability limited partnerships, charities, telephone solicitors, contracted fund-raisers, and to perfect Uniform Commercial Code financing statements in an efficient and timely manner for the general public.

The Business Services Division of the Secretary of State's office has recorded the attachment of the Great Seal to:

- 22,492 Certificates of Limited Partnership
- 1,373 Certificates of Limited Liability Partnership
- 284 Certificates of Limited Liability Limited Partnership

In FY 1999 the Business Services Division of the Secretary of State's Office filed:

- 914 New Intergovernmental Agreements
- 771 Amendments to Intergovernmental Agreements
- 83,023 Uniform Commercial Code transactions

The Business Services Division of the Secretary of State's office currently has on file:

- 21,955 Trademarks

- 149,011 Trade names
- 67,213 Telephone Solicitors
- 1,432 Charities
- 85 Contracted fund raisers

ELECTION SERVICES

MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of the Election Services Division is to provide professional, courteous service in the administration of campaign finance and lobbyist laws; candidate and ballot filings; training and certification of county recorders and election officials; review and certification of election equipment used by the counties; logic and accuracy tests prior to each election on counties' vote counting devices; and retrieval of filings for the public upon request.

During FY 1999, the Election Services Division accepted the following documents for filing or handled the following matters:

- 61 Statements of Organization for Candidate Committees
- 58 Statements of Organization for Non-Candidate Committees
- 416 Amendments to Statements of Organization

- 12 Campaign finance enforcement hearings

- 8 Campaign finance settlement conference resulting in resolution
- 1 Order barring candidate from running for office for 5 years

1998 FALL ELECTIONS

All of the above filings and procedures during FY98 relate to the 1998 September 8th Primary Election and the November 3rd General Election. Some discussion of these elections, as a preview to the FY99 Annual Report, is appropriate.

The office released statewide election results on the Internet for the fall elections as they were received from the counties. Twelve of the 15 counties transmitted their results electronically to the Secretary of State's office for the General Election. Vote totals for all races and issues follow.

In addition to electing candidates, Arizona voters made decisions on proposed constitutional amendments and statutory initiatives and referendums. Each citizens measure had to have a minimum number of required signatures to be placed on the November ballot. The Secretary of State's Office followed statutory procedures to determine whether each measure qualified for the ballot and wrote the ballot language for the Publicity Pamphlet, which is published by the office.

Fourteen ballot measures appeared on the November 1998 General Election Ballot:

Proposition 100: Referred by the Legislature relating to public retirement systems

Proposition 101: Referred by the Legislature relating to commission on salaries for elected state officers

Proposition 102: Referred by the Legislature relating to investment of state trust funds

Proposition 103: Referred by the Legislature relating to primary elections

Proposition 104: Referred by the Legislature relating to initiative and referendum

Proposition 105: Initiative Petition relating to initiative and referendum

Proposition 200: Initiative Petition relating to campaign finance

Proposition 201: Initiative Petition relating to cockfighting

Proposition 202: Initiative Petition relating to candidates' IRS pledge

Proposition 300: Referendum Petition relating to medical use of Schedule I drugs

Proposition 301: Referendum Petition relating to probation eligibility for drug possession/use

Proposition 302: Commission recommendation relating to salary for State Legislators

Proposition 303: Referred by the Legislature relating to appropriation for open space land

Proposition 304: Referred by the Legislature relating to state lottery termination date

Proposition 106, a citizens initiative relating to open (blanket) primaries failed to qualify for the ballot.

Four lawsuits were filed against the Secretary of State's Office relating to the ballot measure procedures. The Arizona Supreme Court upheld the Secretary of State's actions in all four cases.

- In The Arizona Legislative Council v. Hon. Joseph D. Howe, (Ariz.S.Ct., Oct. 22, 1998) the Court held that the descriptive title and yes/no language written by the Secretary of State for Proposition 300 ballot language was in compliance with the Arizona statute.
- The case of Dorothy Dean Meyers v. Betsey Bayless (Ariz.S.Ct., Oct. 22, 1998) holds that the Secretary of State correctly used the article heading "CITIZENS CLEAN ELECTIONS ACT" as the title for Proposition 200, giving proper deference to the people's power to legislate.
- In Open Primary Elections Now v. Betsey Bayless, et al., (Ariz.S.Ct., Dec. 10, 1998) the Court held that the Secretary of State acted in compliance with the statutory mandate to accept the county recorder's certification of the number of valid signatures appearing on petitions and that any alleging of an error in a county recorder's certification must be brought against the county recorder within the statutory time limits.
- David Harris v. Helen Purcell, et al., (Ariz.S.Ct. Dec. 17, 1998) upheld that the trial court's dismissal of the challenge brought against certain county recorders and the Secretary of State for certifying Proposition 201 for the ballot based upon lack of diligence in prosecuting the action by the plaintiffs in the case.

Election Officer Certification

The 1999 Election Officer Certification Training Program, as mandated by A.R.S. § 16-407(C), began in FY '99. The classes were attended by county recorders, officers in charge of elections, employees of those offices, county school superintendents, deputy county attorneys and members of the Secretary of State's Election Services Division.

The Election Director, Assistant Election Director and members of a committee appointed by the Secretary of State (a county recorder, two election directors and an assistant attorney general) prepared course materials and a written test. Subjects covered included Election Law, Initiative and Referendum, Candidate Nomination, Ethics, The National Voter Registration Act, Overseas and Military Voting Procedures, Voting Rights Act and Pre-Clearance and Communication and Teamwork. The training courses were conducted at the following times and locations:

25-Hour Initial Certification Classes

Phoenix	May 24-28, 1999	43 attended
Phoenix	July 26-30, 1999	36 attended

10-hour Re-Certification Classes

Prescott	September 16-17, 1999	18 attended
Flagstaff	September 23-24, 1999	27 attended
Phoenix	October 4-5, 1999	34 attended
Tucson	October 7-8, 1999	43 attended
Safford	October 14-15, 1999	12 attended
Phoenix	November 15-16, 1999	56 attended
Parker	November 18-19, 1999	10 attended

The Secretary of State issued 189 Certified Election Officer Certificates. Additionally, 12 individuals who attended portions of the classes received Certificates of Attendance.

Voter Outreach

The Secretary of State established a pilot voter outreach program to increase voter registration and voter participation. Based on the success of this pilot program, the Secretary of State obtained approval of the Legislature to establish a permanent position for a Voter Outreach Director.

To make registering to vote as easy as possible, the Secretary of State established a toll-free Voter Registration Hotline, 1-877-THE VOTE. Potential voters can also request a voter registration form on the Secretary of State's Web site, www.sosaz.com. During FY '99, 2770 requests for voter registration forms were received via the Web site. Many of those requesters asked for extra forms for other family members or friends, resulting in the distribution of 3898 voter registration forms based on the Web site request mechanism.

Outreach projects include the 18th Birthday Card created in partnership with Rock the Vote and Valley Youth Leadership. The card includes a voter registration form and is mailed to young adults who would turn 18 in time for the fall elections. Posters encouraging voter registration are printed and distributed to voter registration sites, at the offices of the Motor Vehicle Division and Department of Economic Security, and to community groups.

On the two Voter Registration deadlines, 29 days before each of the fall elections, the office organizes and publicizes voter registration drives to accept last minute voter registration applications. On both evenings, prospective voters fill out registration forms until the midnight deadline.

Citizens Clean Elections Act

Passage of this Act by the voters at the 1998 General Election mandated many new responsibilities for the Secretary of State's Office.

The Election Services Division mailed notices regarding the new $100 lobbyist fees to registered lobbyists. The Office collected $118,200 for deposit to the Clean Elections Fund during FY '99.

The Clean Elections Act also requires the Secretary of State to develop and distribute software for the reporting of regular campaign finance reports and special reports based upon expenditures made and contributions received by certain candidates. This software was developed by the office and distributed free of charge upon request and upon the signing of a user agreement developed by the office. Users are assigned PIN numbers to enable them to file the required reports electronically on diskette or via the Internet.

The Election Services Division also created new forms and established procedures for reporting the names of registered voters who donate $5 qualifying contributions to candidates and for checking a random sample of those contributors as required by the Act.

Publicity Pamphlet Legislation

In the First Regular Session of the 44th Legislature, legislation was enacted to require the Secretary of State to mail the ballot measures publicity pamphlet to every household with a registered voter. The publicity pamphlet will now also contain the Commission on Judicial Performance Review evaluations of judges appearing on the ballot for a vote on their retention. It will also include a summary of the fiscal impact statement prepared by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee regarding each initiative measure on the ballot.
